

Detailed Table of Contents

Foreword	-iii-
Copyright, License, Disclaimers and Limitations	-iv-
Detailed Table of Contents	-vi-
Conventions Used in This Book	-x-

ATTORNEY FEE AWARDS 1

Chapter 01	Attorneys Fees as a Damage Element	3
§ 01.01	Importance of attorney fee awards in today's litigation	3
§ 01.02	Availability of attorney fee awards in today's litigation	4
§ 01.03	Failure to consider attorney fee awards as damage element ..	6
Chapter 02	When Attorney's Fees can be Obtained	9
§ 02.01	Black letter law is a poor guide	9
§ 02.02	Attorney fee awards in federal courts	9
§ 02.03	Attorney fee awards in state courts	15
§ 02.04	Carefully choose among alternative theories of recovery ...	22
§ 02.05	Attorney fees as substantive damages	23
§ 02.06	Equitable power of the court	24
§ 02.07	Prevailing party.	25
§ 02.08	Litigation in bad faith	26
§ 02.09	Attorney's fees in frivolous lawsuits	27
§ 02.10	Attorneys who have been discharged by client.	29
Chapter 03	Definition of a Reasonable Attorney Fee	31
§ 03.01	Federal criteria of a reasonable attorney fee	31
§ 03.02	State criteria of a reasonable attorney fee.	32
§ 03.03	Where all courts start from: the lodestar amount	33
§ 03.04	Percentage method in large common fund cases.	34
Chapter 04	The Ethics of Attorney's Fees	37
§ 04.01	Ethics and the attorney's bill to the client	37
§ 04.02	Ethics and the attorney's submission to the court	37
§ 04.03	Presumptively unreasonable fee contract arrangements ...	39
§ 04.04	Ethics standards for billing judgment and billing entries ...	39
§ 04.05	Ethics related publications by investigators and experts ...	42

Chapter 05	Timekeeping for the Number of Hours Spent	43
§ 05.01	Records required	43
§ 05.02	Over-billing and double-billing	45
§ 05.03	Specifying which claim is involved in the work	46
Chapter 06	The Top Four Elements of Good Time Records	49
§ 06.01	The top four elements	49
§ 06.02	# 1. A reasonable time increment	49
§ 06.03	# 2. Detailed task descriptions	53
§ 06.04	# 3. Itemized time entries	57
§ 06.05	# 4. Accurate and contemporaneous time records	58
Chapter 07	Finding the Hours Reasonably Expended	61
§ 07.01	Time actually spent: the starting point	61
§ 07.02	The measure of time “reasonably expended”	61
§ 07.03	Expert testimony as a source	63
§ 07.04	Case law and statutes as a source	64
§ 07.05	Sophisticated consumers of legal services as sources	64
§ 07.06	Internal information captured by the computer as a source	65
§ 07.07	Custom and practice of attorneys as a source	65
§ 07.08	Charges of the opposing attorneys as a source	66
Chapter 08	Other Factors Than Hours of Time	67
§ 08.01	The lodestar calculation	67
§ 08.02	The skill level needed during hours reasonably expended	68
§ 08.03	Acceptance of the job precludes other employment	69
§ 08.04	The fee customarily charged in the locality	69
§ 08.05	The amount involved and the results obtained	73
§ 08.06	Time limitations	75
§ 08.07	Nature and length of professional relationship with client	75
§ 08.08	Experience, reputation, and ability of the lawyer	75
§ 08.09	Fixed or contingent fee; certain or uncertain payment	76
Chapter 09	Awards for Paralegal Time	79
§ 09.01	Paralegal time “Yes”; clerical time “No”	79
Chapter 10	Awards for Prejudgment Interest	81
§ 10.01	More than one way to enhance for the passage of time	81
Chapter 11	Awards for Attorney Expenses	83
§ 11.01	Traditionally billed expenses	83
§ 11.02	Handy quotes	85
§ 11.03	Witness and expert’s fees	86
Chapter 12	Special Considerations in Settlements	87
§ 12.01	Attorney fee award disposition in settlement	87

§ 12.02	Settlement tactic for defendants; trap for plaintiff's counsel . .	89
§ 12.03	Tax problem in settlements	91
Chapter 13	Traps in the Procedure for an Award	93
§ 13.01	Attorney fee awards procedure	93
§ 13.02	The required fact finder — when to present your evidence . .	94
§ 13.03	Bundle all your motions for fees together	97
§ 13.04	The five pathways to an attorney fee award	98
§ 13.05	Contingency fees	99
§ 13.06	Time at the trial and on a future appeal	99
§ 13.07	Form: order for severance	102
Chapter 14	Documents Supporting an Attorney Fee Award	103
§ 14.01	The five basic documents	103
§ 14.02	Time records	104
§ 14.03	Fee agreement	104
§ 14.04	Biographies of the attorneys and legal assistants	104
§ 14.05	Evidence of the prevailing hourly rate	105
§ 14.06	Opinions of experts	105
§ 14.07	Who the experts are	106
§ 14.08	Content of the billing attorney's affidavit or testimony	107
§ 14.09	Checklist: the billing attorney's affidavit or testimony.. . . .	108
§ 14.10	Exemplar format: billing attorney's affidavit	111
Chapter 15	Forms: Requesting An Attorney Fee	117
§ 15.01	Form: motion to seek attorney fee award	117
§ 15.02	Form: jury submission of attorney fee	119
§ 15.03	Form: order finding and awarding attorney fee amount	120
§ 15.04	Form: application for common fund percentage award	121
Chapter 16	Using Experts in Proving or Attacking the Amount of Fee	129
§ 16.01	You need an expert on the fee amount	129
§ 16.02	Hire your expert early.	133
§ 16.03	Presenting the expert witness	134
§ 16.04	Form: checklist for direct examination of your expert	137
§ 16.05	Tips on deposing the adverse fee expert	144
§ 16.06	Form: checklist for deposing the adversary's fee expert	146
§ 16.07	Form: summarizing time spent in litigation	156
Appendix A:	References - the Ethics of Time-Based Billing by Attorneys	159
Appendix B:	Specimen Cases Awarding Paralegal Time	161

Appendix C: Role Models America, Inc. v. Brownlee , Excerpts	163
Appendix D: Henley v. Eckerhart , Excerpts	168
Appendix E: In re Bristol-Myers Squibb	172
Appendix F: Hooveen v. Exxon Mobil Corp. , Order on Attorney Fee	178